Mel Brooks Film Festival

High Anxiety

Mel starred, produced, directed, co-authored this hilarious psycho-comedy—even composed the title song, which he sings! Many of your favorite funsters join in the spoof: Harvey Korman, Madeline Kahn and Cloris Leachman as Nurse Diesel. How many references to the great Hitchcock thrillers can you find? “Get high on High Anxiety.” (N.Y. Daily News) Adult language. (PG-1:32) June 3,7,10,12,20,22,25

Young Frankenstein

Incredibly funny sight gags highlight Mel Brooks' imaginative reworking of the great screen classic. Gene Wilder plays the title role; Peter Boyle is his latest creation. Marty Feldman is hilarious as Igor. Filmed in black and white to emulate the '32 version. “Thrillingly crazy.” (L.A. Times) Mild vulgarities. (PG-1:45) June 2,6,10

Silent Movie

The wordless (well, almost) adventures of down-at-the-heels director Mel Brooks and a desperate scheme to save a film studio—by making a modern silent movie with stars like Paul Newman in cameo roles. Marty Feldman and Sid Caesar are Mel's silent partners. “Side-splitting.” (Gene Shalit) Adult humor. (PG-1:27) June 4,8,10

Walt Disney

Herbie Rides Again

That lovable little car with a mind of its own is back. Herbie, VW star of The Love Bug, thinks, flies through the air—even races up and down San Francisco hills. Helen Hayes is the nice lady living in a seedy firehouse whom Herbie tries to help. “Grade-A Disney delight.” (Christian Science Monitor) Family fare. (G-1:37) June 1,7,11,13,16,19,24

© Walt Disney Productions

The Olympiad

Hosted by Jesse Owens, this superb series continues. Jesse Owens Returns to Berlin details one of the most dramatic Olympics. In 1936 he collapsed Hitler's claim of Aryan supremacy by winning four gold medals. June 7,11 The Incredible Five documents a handful of legendary Olympians, including discus thrower Al Oerter, the only athlete to win gold in four straight Olympics. June 14,18 The Persistent Ones looks at those who spent a lifetime in pursuit of a gold medal. Among them is runner Alain Mimoun, who was obsessed with Olympic victory. June 21,25

Jonathan Winters' Salute to Baseball

He's a one-man team! Zany Jonathan Winters opens the season with hilarious characterizations of slugger, pitcher, umpire—even avid fan Maude Frickett. Join him in left field for this fun-loving special. June 1,6

All-Star Country Music Festival

The lineup reads like the Who's Who of Country Music: Tammy Wynette, Mel Tillis, the Oak Ridge Boys, Roy Clark and Freddie Fender. All lickin' and pickin' your favorite country sounds! June 2,7,10,12

FM Martin Mull

Top recording artists—like Linda Ronstadt—perform their big hits in this saga of a radio station with a crazy deejay staff. "Gifted satirical actors... Martin Mull has some very funny moments." (New York Times) Language. (PG-1:50) June 5,9,14,16

The Osmonds

Get set for an evening of musical fun with all the talented Osmonds doing things you've never seen them do on TV. Here's their slick, glittery nightclub act. June 3,12

I Wanna Hold Your Hand

Six teenagers set out for the Big Apple in an undertaker's limo to see idols John, Paul, George and Ringo on their phenomenal first visit to America. Hysteria and nostalgia. "Rousingly funny." (Newsweek) Language. (PG-1:44) June 6,10,14,16

The Chosen

Man's potential for destruction and the age-old struggle between good and evil are the background for this supernatural horror film. Kirk Douglas gives a powerful performance as the head of a nuclear power plant who suspects the presence of an evil satanic force in his son, Simon Ward. Riveting suspense! Anthony Quayle co-stars. Nudity, violence (R-1:42) June 1,7,9,17

THE OMEN

Gregory Peck
Lee Remick

A diplomat secretly accepts a baby in place of the son he and his wife lose at birth. The horror begins five years later when Damien, an instrument of the Devil, begins to exercise his evil powers on those who suspect him. But how can you stop someone from the other side of Death? Gregory Peck is the father; Lee Remick, his wife. The spooky music by Jerry Goldsmith won an Oscar. "Brisk, highly professional thriller." (Time) Strong violence. (R-1:51) June 8,12,14

DAMIEN OMEN II

William Holden
Lee Grant

The first film was only a warning of more terror to come! Damien is back amongst us in a spine-tin-gling sequel to the scary Omen. The strange little boy, now 13, lives near Chicago with his uncle (William Holden) and aunt (Lee Grant). Shocks, thrills, tension and suspense underscored by great special effects. For all horror mongers. "A strikingly handsome film." (Newsweek) Strong violence. (R-1:50) June 10,14,19,22,27,30

Where Does It Hurt? Peter Sellers

Peter Sellers makes a laughing matter out of medical monkeyshines and bloated hospital costs. Sellers is a conniving hospital administrator who will stoop to blackmail, dally with willing nurses and even steal from a soft-drink machine. Jo Ann Pflug and Eve Bruce compete for Peter's favors. "A lovely performance by Jo Ann Pflug." (L. A. Times) Coarse humor, language. (R-1:30) June 9,12,17,20,29

The Buddy Holly Story

Gary Busey

All the joy and energy of early rock 'n' roll are faithfully re-created in this musical biography. Gary Busey, nominated for an Oscar this year, portrays the Texan with a charming, relaxed quality. This is nicely balanced with the driving intensity he gives to his music. All the Buddy Holly songbook is intact: "Peggy Sue," "Not Fade Away," "Oh Boy," "That'll Be the Day," "It's So Easy"—and lots more. "Super soundtrack and a stunning performance." (Kansas City Star) Language. (PG-1:39) June 13,16,18,21,24,29

The Hanging Tree

Gary Cooper

Gary Cooper lopes into town as a shy doctor with a mysterious past. When Maria Schell appears, he's soon turned into a man of action. A good old-fashioned western. Adult situations, mild violence. (1:47) June 4,8,12

Telefon

Soviet agent Charles Bronson is out to stop a defector from setting off 51 human time bombs—and ruining Detente. Donald Pleasence is the renegade who won't come in from the Cold War. Bloody violence, language. (PG-1:42) June 9,20,28

The Greek Tycoon

Sleek Jacqueline Bisset, widow of a U.S. president, is courted by a man twice her age with four times her wealth. Anthony Quinn is the golden Greek. Adult situations, language. (R-1:46) June 2,6,11

Gray Lady Down

When submarine commander Charlton Heston and his crew are trapped beneath the icy Atlantic, the pressure soon starts to build—inside and out. A taut rescue film. Mild violence, language. (PG-1:51) June 17,23,28

What's up, Doc?

A wacky comedy in the screwball style of the '30s. Madeline Kahn joins Barbra Streisand and Ryan O'Neal in some mad shenanigans involving four identical suitcases. "A total smash." (Variety). Family fare. (G-1:33) June 11,15,21,24,27

Race for the Pennant: The Rookies

Ah, rookies. Their flaws are soon found: hitters who can't hit changeups; pitchers who lose control under pressure. But some survive. HBO looks at the best bets: Scot Thompson (Cubs), Bobby Sprowl (Red Sox), Jeff Leonard (Astros). Plus see some past rookie bets that paid off—like Jackie Robinson. June 12,15,17

An Unmarried Woman

Jill Clayburgh
Alan Bates

She laughs, she cries. She feels anger, guilt and loneliness. She makes love, makes breakfast, makes do. Jill Clayburgh is brilliant in her Oscar-nominee performance of a woman coming to terms with her husband's rejection. Alan Bates co-stars as the bright new man in her life. Also nominated for Best Picture and Best Screenplay, "Watching Jill find love again is a pure joy . . . you'll love it!" (Liz Smith, Cosmopolitan) Nudity, adult language. (R-2:05) June 17, 21, 25, 30

Road to Yucca Luna

From those who gave us "Fernwood 2-Night," it's madcap mayhem on Home Box Office when two very "far-out" kids are given a TV station in a California desert town with the unlikely name of Yucca Luna. Their rich father wants them way out of his way—so he also gives them the task of producing a variety special. A zany staff (part Fernwood alumni), loco locals, and "imported" top name guest stars like Karen Black and John Byner combine their frenzy in this comedy of errors that will entertain you madly! Girl Friends

An appealing and honest look at a single woman in the '70s . . . surviving, striving for love, recognition, success. Melanie Mayron is memorable as an aspiring Greenwich Village photographer facing the fact she is now alone after her best friend's marriage. Anita Skinner, Eli Wallach and Viveca Lindfors. "Full of life and love and feeling." (David Sheehan) Brief nudity, language. (PG-1:28) June 15, 18, 21, 23, 27

The Crazy World of Laurel and Hardy

Slapstick, antics and comedic clowning in the best Laurel and Hardy anthology ever fashioned! Enjoy the funniest film sequences spanning the entire career of this daffy, derbied duo. Narrated by Garry Moore, it's a nostalgic delight for "old" Laurel and Hardy buffs as well as an irresistible invitation for "new" fans. A special tribute to Stan and Ollie—the legendary clowns.

Steve Martin (The Funnier Side of Eastern Canada)

Meet maniac Martin in "Mountie" country! Zany Steve Martin was turned loose in Canada just before his "wild and crazy" career took off—and this HBO special is more proof of why he is where he is today! Steve's Canadian capers include not only his classic routines (like Crazy Guy banjo player and arrow-through-the-head card-trick juggler) but a lot of new ones that happen as they hit him! See Canada through the wild eyes of Steve Martin! It's different, daffy, and delicious! June 22, 26, 30

Earthquake Charlton Heston

Cataclysmic upheavals, skyscraping infernos and collapsing dams turn Los Angeles into "the city of angels"—literally. Charlton Heston, Ava Gardner, George Kennedy, Lorne Greene and Genevieve Bu-Jold are some of the familiar faces in this staggering spectacle. Terrific special effects add to the excitement. Disaster violence, language. (PG-2:02) June 23, 26, 30

Wimbledon!

Catch every important bounce, backhand, slam and volley as HBO brings you superb tennis from Wimbledon, England. Exclusive same-day highlights of the liveliest, most significant early-round matches.

There'll be marvelous confrontations as established women like Chris Evert and Martina Navratilova battle each other and also try to hold off young Tracy Austin. Slam-bang, too, will be the men's matches as Bjorn Borg and Jimmy Connors unload their aces, lobs and forehand smashes—while keeping an eye on young John McEnroe. June 25, 26, 27, 28, 29

The Way of the Wind

Fed up with the establishment, a young millionaire sets out on a daring adventure aboard a 60 ft. ketch. From California, through the Panama Canal to the Azores, Gibraltar, Malta and the isles of Greece. (G-1:45) June 1, 5, 9

Heroes Henry Winkler

"The Fonz" makes his screen debut with Sally Field (Norma Rae). Together, they hit the road to pursue his dream—would you believe, to start a worm farm? A love story that combines fresh, light comedy and poignant drama. Adult language. (PG-1:53) June 25, 29

Robin and Marian

A very original retelling of a favorite romance as Robin Hood returns from the Crusades to settle old accounts with the Sheriff of Nottingham and finds Marian again. Audrey Hepburn and Sean Connery make a most engaging pair. Adult situations. (PG-1:47) June 27

UpClose Special Report

Cannes Film Festival

Here's your invitation to the 32nd Annual Cannes Film Festival where anybody who is anybody in the movie world will be! In this special edition of UpClose, host David Sheehan guides you through the glitter of the French Riviera—the beaches, the yachts and all the movie "business" that goes on there. You'll glimpse frolicking favorites Burt Reynolds, Sally Field, Farrah Fawcett-Majors and a number of others. C'est tres chic et magnifique! June 20, 24, 28

Silver Bears Michael Caine Cybill Shepherd Louis Jourdan

Las Vegas mobsters and cocky con men move in on respectable financiers and open their own Swiss bank. Michael Caine, Cybill Shepherd, Louis Jourdan, Tom Smothers, David Warner, Stéphane Audran and Martin Balsam head the international all-stars in a spoof of shady shenanigans in world banking. "Classy cast, gorgeous settings . . . fast fun . . . Caine in top form." (Judith Crist) Mild vulgarities. (PG-1:53) June 29

Blackout

Four psychotic criminals lay siege to a Manhattan high rise and terrorize the residents during New York City's big power failure. Policeman Jim Mitchum singlehandedly tries to track down the punks through the blackened corridors and stairways. Robert Carradine is head honcho of the psychos—always one apartment ahead of Mitchum. Belinda J. Montgomery, June Allyson, Jean-Pierre Aumont and Ray Milland lend strong support. "A neat combination of comedy and terror." (Variety) Violence, language. (R-1:27) June 30

The End

Burt Reynolds

Burt Reynolds gets some bad news from the doctor. His days are numbered and the number is low. Frantically looking for sympathy, Reynolds races through a string of farcical incidents with an all-star cast. Joanne Woodward is his ex-wife, Sally Field his new love, Dom DeLuise and Carl Reiner turn up in a mental ward that would drive anyone crazy. Adult situations, profanity. (R-1:40) June 4, 8, 13, 16

Acapulco Gold

Marjoe Gortner

There are high profits at stake—and all illegal—in international marijuana smuggling. Follow all the intrigue, suspense and action as a trafficker turns pot profit into gold bars and Oriental heroin on the garden isle of Kauai in Hawaii. HBO favorite Marjoe Gortner stars as an American tourist hustled to jail on trumped-up charges. Robert Lansing co-stars. Language, some violence. (PG-1:45) June 28

Who watches the same movie six times?

Or, to put it another way, why does HBO show the same movie again and again? Good question.

It deserves a good answer. And our answer—our reasons, really—are just what make HBO so very special and unique.

We do show all movies and specials several times. On different days. At different hours. We're not like the commercial networks that schedule a one-shot and, months later, a re-run.

HBO programming is carefully worked out to give you a chance to see what you want to see, even preview programs for your family or friends. You can actually plan your viewing well in advance—so it doesn't interfere with other things you want to do. Like going out to dinner or a ball game.

Do you want to see everything HBO schedules? Probably not. Any more than you saw every movie released in a theater before you became a subscriber.

Of course, there are also avid fans who want to see their favorites half a dozen or more times. And that's O.K. with us, too.
